CASE NO.: 3:10-CV-00198-ECR-
RAM

1 sells electricity and equipment for geothermal and recovered energy-based electricity
2 generation.

3 The complaint alleges defendants violated the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
4 Throughout the Class Period, defendants knew or recklessly disregarded that their 5 public statements concerning Ormat's business, operations and prospects were 6 materially false and misleading. Specifically, defendants made false and/or 7 misleading statements and/or failed to disclose: (1) that the Company was improperly 8 continuing to capitalize costs for individual projects after Ormat had decided to 9 abandon further exploration and development of individual projects instead of 10 expensing those costs in the period in which any such determination was made; (2)
11 that, as a result, the Company's financial results were overstated during the Class 12 Period; (3) that the Company's financial results were not prepared in accordance with 13 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP"); (4) that the Company lacked 14 adequate internal and financial controls; and (5), as a result of the above, that the 15 Company's financial statements were materially false and misleading at all relevant 16 times.

17 On February 24, 2010, Ormat disclosed that the Board of Directors and Audit
18 Committee of the Company, upon recommendation of management, had concluded 19 that the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 (the 20 "2008 Financial Statements") contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K required
21 restatement and should no longer be relied upon, and additionally, that the Company's 22 prior related earnings and news releases and similar communications should also no
23 longer be relied on to the extent they related to the 2008 Financial Statements.

24 The Company also announced that the restatement would show a change in the 25 Company's accounting treatment for certain exploration and development costs.
26 According to Ormat, these costs were capitalized on an area-of-interest basis using an 27 accounting method that is analogous to the full cost method, and upon review of this 28

1 accounting treatment in response to comment letters from the Staff of the Securities
2 and Exchange Commission, the Company concluded that this accounting treatment
3 was inappropriate in certain respects. Ormat additionally indicated that the Company 4 planned to revise its consolidated financial statements as of and for the three- and 5 nine-month periods ended September 30, 2009.

6 As a result of this news, Ormat shares declined $1.28 per share, or nearly 4%, to 7 close on February 24, 2010, at $31.90 per share, and further declined over the 8 following two days to close on February 26, 2010, at $28.93 per share, on heavy
9 trading volume. Over the course of these three days of trading, Ormat shares declined
10 a total of 12.81%, or $4.25 per share.

11 ARGUMENT

12 I. THE RELATED ACTIONS SHOULD BE CONSOLIDATED

13 Consolidation pursuant to Rule 42(a) is proper when actions involve common
14 questions of law and fact. See Casden v. HPL Techs., Inc., No. C-02-3510-VRW, 15 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19606, at *4-*5 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 29, 2003). Courts recognize 16 that class action shareholder suits are ideally suited to consolidation because their 17 unification expedites proceedings, reduces duplication, and minimizes the expenditure
18 of time and money by all concerned. See Aronson v. McKesson HBOC, Inc., 79 F.
19 Supp. 2d 1146, 1150 (N.D. Cal. 1999) (“It seems obvious that fifty-four separate class 20 actions predicated on the same set of misstatements by corporate officials, causing an 21 artificial inflation and then a corrective drop in share prices, present common 22 questions of fact.”).

23 The Actions pending before this Court present similar factual and legal issues,
24 as they all involve the same subject matter, and present the same legal issues. Each
25 alleges the same violations of the Exchange Act, and is based on the same wrongful 26 course of conduct. Each names the Company and certain of its officers and/or 27 directors as Defendants. Because the Actions arise from the same facts and 28

1 circumstances and involve the same subject matter, the same discovery and similar 2 class certification issues will be relevant to all related actions.

3 Accordingly, consolidation under Rule 42(a) is appropriate.

4 A. The Court Should Resolve The Consolidation Issue
5 As A Prerequisite To The Determination Of Lead Plaintiff

6 Once the Court decides the consolidation motion, it must decide the lead
7 plaintiff issue “[a]s soon as practicable.” Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(ii), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
8 4(a)(3)(B)(ii). As Movants have an interest in moving these actions forward, they 9 respectfully urge the Court to resolve the consolidation motion as soon as practicable.
10 A prompt determination is reasonable and warranted under Rule 42(a), especially 11 given the common questions of fact and law presented by the related actions now
12 pending in this District.

13 II. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT MOVANTS AS LEAD PLAINTIFFS

14 A. The Procedure Required By The PSLRA

15 The PSLRA establishes the procedure for appointment of the lead plaintiff in 16 “each private action arising under [the Exchange Act] that is brought as a plaintiff
17 class action pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.” Sections 21D(a)(1)
18 and 21D(a)(3)(B), 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(1) and (a)(3)(B).

19 First, the plaintiff who files the initial action must publish notice to the class
20 within 20 days after filing the action, informing class members of their right to file a 21 motion for appointment of lead plaintiff. Section 21D(a)(3)(A)(i), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
22 4(a)(3)(A)(i). The PSLRA requires the court to consider within 90 days all motions, 23 filed within 60 days after publication of that notice, made by any person or group of 24 persons who are members of the proposed class to be appointed lead plaintiff.
25 Sections 21D(a)(3)(A)(i)(II) and 21D(a)(3)(B)(i), 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i)(II)
26 and (a)(3)(B)(i).

1 The PSLRA provides a presumption that the most “adequate plaintiff” to serve 2 as lead plaintiff is the “person or group of persons” that:

- 3 (aa) has either filed the complaint or made a motion in response 4 to a notice;
- 5 (bb) in the determination of the court, has the largest financial 6 interest in the relief sought by the class; and
- 7 (cc) otherwise satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the 8 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

9 Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I). The presumption may 10 be rebutted only upon proof by a class member that the presumptively most adequate 11 plaintiff “will not fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class” or “is subject 12 to unique defenses that render such plaintiff incapable of adequately representing the 13 class.” Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II).

14 As set forth below, Movants satisfy the foregoing criteria and are not aware of 15 any unique defenses that Defendants could raise against them. Therefore, Movants 16 are entitled to the presumption that they are the most adequate lead plaintiffs to 17 represent Plaintiffs and, as a result, should be appointed lead plaintiffs in the Actions.

18 1. Movants Are Willing To Serve As Class Representatives

19 On March 9, 2010, counsel in the first-filed action caused a notice (the 20 “Notice”) to be published pursuant to Section 21D(a)(3)(A)(i), which announced that 21 a securities class action had been filed against Ormat and certain of the Individual
22 Defendants, and which advised putative class members that they had until May 10,
23 2010 to file a motion to seek appointment as a lead plaintiff in the action.¹

24 Movants have reviewed one of the complaints filed in the pending actions and 25 have timely filed their motion pursuant to the Notice. In doing so, Movants have

26
27 ¹ See Declaration of Joseph R. Seidman, Jr. (“Seidman Decl.”) Ex. A.
28

1 attached their certifications attesting to their willingness to serve as representatives
2 party of the Class and provide testimony at deposition and trial, if necessary. See
3 Seidman Decl. Ex. B. Accordingly, Movants satisfy the first requirement to serve as 4 lead plaintiffs. Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(aa), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(aa).

5 2. Movants Are The Most Adequate Lead Plaintiffs

6 Under the PSLRA, any member of the purported class may move for 7 appointment as lead plaintiff within 60 days of the publication of notice that the action
8 has been filed. See 15 U.S.C. § 77z-1(a)(3)(A)(i)(II). Subsequently, the court “shall 9 appoint as lead plaintiff the member or members of the purported plaintiff class that 10 the court determines to be most capable of adequately representing the interests of 11 class members” 15 U.S.C. § 77z-1(a)(3)(B)(i).

12 Movants believe their $53,156 loss constitutes the largest financial interest in 13 the outcome of the action. As such, Movants are the most adequate lead plaintiffs and 14 should be appointed as lead plaintiffs.

1 3. Movants Satisfy The Requirements Of
2 Rule 23(a) Of The Federal Rules Of Civil Procedure

3 Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(cc) of the PSLRA also state that at the outset of the 4 litigation, the lead plaintiff must also “otherwise satisf[y] the requirements of Rule 23
5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.” 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(cc). With 6 respect to the qualifications of a class representative, Rule 23(a) requires generally
7 that representatives’ claims be typical of those of the class, and that representatives
8 will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. See Stocke v. Shuffle
9 Master, Inc. No. 2:07-CV-00715-KJD-RJ, 2007 WL 4262723, at *2-3 (D. Nev. Nov.
10 30, 2007); In re Cavanaugh, 306 F.3d 726, 730 (9th Cir. 2002); Ferrari v. Gisch, 225
11 F.R.D. 599, 606 (C.D. Cal. 2004); Ruland v. InfoSonics Corp., No. 06CV1231, 2006
12 WL 3746716, at *2 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 23, 2006).

13 Claims are “typical” under Rule 23 if they are “reasonably co-extensive with 14 those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.” Ferrari, 225
15 F.R.D. at 606 (citing Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1019 (9th Cir. 1998)).
16 Likewise, Rule 23(a) also requires that the person(s) representing the class be able to 17 “fairly and adequately protect the interests’ of all members in the class.” Ferrari, 18 225 F.R.D. at 607 (citation omitted).

19 The claims asserted by Movants are typical of those of the Class. Movants, like 20 the members of the Class, acquired shares of Ormat during the Class Period at prices
21 artificially inflated by Defendants’ materially false and misleading statements, and 22 was damaged thereby. Thus, their claims are typical, if not identical, to those of the 23 other members of the Class because Movants suffered losses similar to those of other 24 Class members and their losses result from Defendants’ common course of conduct.
25 Accordingly, Movants satisfy the typicality requirement of Rule 23(a)(3).

26 Movants are also adequate representatives for the Class. There is no
27 antagonism between their interests and those of the Class. Moreover, Movants have 28

1 retained counsel highly experienced in prosecuting securities class actions, and will
2 submit their choice to the Court for approval pursuant to Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(v), 15
3 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v).

4 Accordingly, at this stage of the proceedings, Movants have made the 5 preliminary showing necessary to satisfy the typicality and adequacy requirements of 6 Rule 23 and, therefore, satisfies Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(cc), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
7 4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(cc).

8 III. MOVANTS' CHOICE OF COUNSEL SHOULD BE APPROVED

9 The PSLRA vests authority in the lead plaintiff to select and retain lead
10 counsel, subject to court approval. Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(v), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
11 4(a)(3)(B)(v); Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(v), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v). The Court 12 should interfere with the lead plaintiff's selection of counsel only when necessary "to 13 protect the interests of the class." Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II)(aa), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
14 4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II)(aa); Section 21D(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II)(aa), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
15 4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II)(aa).

16 Movants have selected and retained Bernstein Liebhard and Glancy Binkow as 17 the proposed co-lead counsel for the Class. Bernstein Liebhard has extensive 18 experience prosecuting complex securities class actions, such as this one, and is well 19 qualified to represent the Class. See Seidman Decl. Ex. D for the firm resume of 20 Bernstein Liebhard. As a result, the Court may be assured that by approving 21 Bernstein Liebhard as lead counsel, the Class is receiving the best legal representation 22 available.

23 Bernstein Liebhard has frequently been appointed as lead counsel since the 24 passage of the PSLRA, and has frequently appeared in major actions before this and 25 other courts throughout the country. Indeed, THE NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL has 26 recognized Bernstein Liebhard for six consecutive years as one of the top plaintiffs'
27
28

1 firms in the country. Of the thirteen firms named to the list in 2007, Bernstein
 2 Liebhard is one of only two named six years in a row. Bernstein Liebhard has also 3 been listed in THE LEGAL 500, a guide to the best commercial law firms in the United 4 States, for the past three years.

5 Four of Bernstein Liebhard's recent outstanding successes include:

- 6 • In re Marsh & McLennan Cos. Sec. Litig., No. 04-CV-8144 (CM) (S.D.N.Y. 2009)
 7 (settlement: $400 million);
- 8 • In re Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation, No. 04-374 (JAP) (D.N.J.
 9 2008) (Judge Joel A. Pisano gave final approval to a U.S. settlement with a minimum 10 cash value of $130 million. This settlement is in addition to a $350 million European 11 settlement on behalf of a class of non-U.S. purchasers of Shell securities on non-U.S.
 12 exchanges, which the court-appointed lead plaintiffs and Bernstein Liebhard were, in 13 the words of Judge Pisano, a "substantial factor" in bringing about);
- 14 • In re Deutsche Telekom AG Securities Litigation, No. 00-CV-9475 (SHS) (S.D.N.Y.
 2005) (settlement: $120 million, representing 188% of the recognized losses); and
- 15 • In re Cigna Corp. Securities Litigation, No. 2:02CV8088 (E.D. Pa. 2007) (settlement: 16 $93 million).

17 Further, Bernstein Liebhard partner Stanley Bernstein serves as Chairman of the 18 Executive Committee in Initial Public Offering Securities Litigation ("IPO"), No. 21
 19 MC 92 (SS) (S.D.N.Y. 2009), pending in this Court before Judge Shira Scheindlin.
 20 The IPO litigation is one of the biggest securities class actions ever prosecuted. On 21 October 5, 2009, the Court granted final approval to a $586 million settlement.

22 Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP has represented investors and consumers in 23 federal and state courts throughout the United States for sixteen years. Based in Los 24 Angeles, California, with offices in New York, New York and San Francisco,
 25 California, Glancy Binkow & Goldberg has developed expertise prosecuting securities
 26 fraud, antitrust and complex commercial litigation. As Lead Counsel or as a member 27 of Plaintiffs' Counsel Executive Committees, Glancy Binkow & Goldberg has 28 recovered in excess of $1 billion for parties wronged by corporate fraud and malfeasance. The firm's efforts on behalf of individual investors have been the subject of articles in such publications as The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times and Los Angeles Times.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Movants respectfully request that this Court: (1) consolidate the captioned, and all subsequently-filed, related actions; (2) appoint Movants as lead plaintiffs for the Class in the Actions and all subsequently-filed, related actions; and (3) approve Bernstein Liebhard and Glancy Binkow as co-lead counsel for the Class.
